Chairman's Message

Even as I prepare this message late in November, the festive spirit is already beginning to make itself felt in the Club and attendances in all sections are beginning to climb despite the fact that our facilities have been curtailed and have only recently come partly back into action with the opening of the dining room and lounge on the fourth floor. By the time you read it things should be in full swing for Christmas and we will be on the eve of starting our traditional activities on the first floor, which have now become so much a part of the Tattersall's Christmas scene.

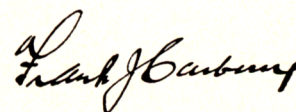

I sincerely hope that you will all join in with this spirit in the Club and take part in the many activities organised for the enjoyment of yourselves and your guests at this time.

Experience of past years of trial and error have selected the events which we now include on our Christmas and New Year calendar as being the ones which members want most.

But in whatever capacity you make use of the Club, whether as part of the organised activities or as an informal meeting place amongst your fellow members and friends, I hope Tattersall's provides the background for a very happy Christmas period for you and that it both engenders and fosters that spirit of goodwill so appropriate to Christmastime.

On behalf of all the members of Tattersall's Committee I extend to you sincere season's greetings and add to them my own personal good wishes for your health and happiness.

On behalf of the Club membership I offer good wishes to all kindred bodies and to Tattersall's many friends outside the Club. On your behalf also I wish the staff of the Club season's greetings and sincere appreciation for their efforts during the year.

FRESH RED SALMON

We received a letter last month from member Roy Clifford reporting on his overseas trip. He was particularly enthusiastic about the Terminal City club in Vancouver which he and his wife, who is accompanying him on the trip, visited. He said that the hospitality shown to Mrs. Clifford and him left absolutely nothing to be desired and that they were both made to feel at home from the moment they set foot in the club. Roy assures us that one meal they had of fresh red Canadian salmon will live long in his gastronomic memory. He concludes his letter by saying that no Tattersall's member passing through Vancouver should miss a visit to the Terminal City. Your Tattersall's friends are pleased to know both you and Mrs. Clifford are having such a pleasant time Roy and wish you an even happier continuation of your trip.

IN HOSPITAL

His many friends will be sorry indeed to know that at the time of writing member Ray Vaughan was ill. He had been admitted to Gloucester House where he was undergoing treatment. Tattersall's members hope to have early news to the effect that you are on the mend again Ray and in the meantime send you very best wishes for a speedy recovery and good health for the future.

TO MANAGE CRICKET TEAM

Popular member Pat Martin is in the news again and deserving of hearty congratulations on his appointment as manager of the Randwick Green Shield cricket team. As cricket followers will know the Green Shield is a competition for boys under the age of sixteen. Pat's interest in cricket is widely known and his generosity in giving his time and knowledge to helping the youngsters is highly commendable. No mean player himself, although now past his cricketing "prime", Pat has been keeping his hand in with Club Secretary, Lyal Binn's, team whose most recent encounter was with the 729 club. As the name indicates, this organisation is made up from three television stations — channels seven, two and nine — and we are happy to report that the television boys took something of a beating at the hands of Lyal's XI. Pat's contribution was an unbeaten 14 and his captain's a similarly unbeaten 5. Though perhaps unspectacular when compared to Booth's recent double century, they were sufficient to take the day for Tattersall's in the match. Congratulations once again Pat.

PRESIDENT OF PRINTING FEDERATION

Congratulations are extended to member E. H. Booth on his election to the presidency of the Printing and Allied Trades Employers' Federation of Australia. This honour was extended to him at the annual meeting of the federation in Perth recently. He is a member of the Booth family well known in Tattersall's Club over many years and the son of Gordon Booth. In business Mr. E. H. Booth is managing director of the Sydney-based firm of F. H. Booth and Sons, general printers, and its associate companies, Holroyd Typesetters Pty. Ltd. and The Critic Newspaper Co. Pty. Ltd. He is the third generation to manage this family business which was started more than 70 years ago, and succeeded Gordon Booth in that position. He has been a member of the executive committee of the federation for the last twelve years and was vice-president before his election to his present office.

ILL AWAY FROM HOME

It's bad enough to be taken ill suddenly at any time but doubly so when you're away from your home town, family and friends. However this was the unhappy lot of well known member Kyle Kopsen recently. Kyle was in Newcastle when misfortune fell and had to be hospitalized in that city. His progress was rapid, we are happy to report, and he is now home and on the mend. Your Club friends were sorry to hear of your illness Kyle and wish you a very speedy recovery and a return to Tattersall's in the near future.

APPRECIATION FROM MRS. DALTON

Knowing that Mrs. Dalton would appreciate having a copy of the obituary notice (which was published in the last issue of T.C.M.) of her late husband and well known trainer, Frank Dalton, our Secretary sent her the journal. Below we quote Mrs. Dalton's letter of appreciation:

"Thank you very much for sending me copies of Tattersall's Magazine. The article about Frank is a sincere tribute. It gave me great pleasure to know that he had such genuine friends and I will treasure these copies of the journal.

"Frank was always very highly appreciative of the Club and its members, but unfortunately, because of ill health in the last year or two, he was not able to spend much time there. He was always interested in the progress of the Club and for him I wish you every success for the future."

COMMITTEEMAN PRESENTS CUP

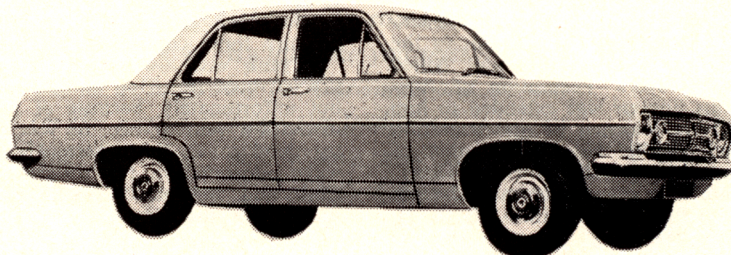

Newcastle Tattersall's Club race meetings have always been popular events with turf followers and are usually strongly supported by members of our own organization because of the affinity between the two clubs. It was therefore an honour for Tattersall's Sydney when our Committeeman, John McKell, was invited to make the presentation at Newcastle's recent Cup Meeting which was held on Saturday the 12th of November. John and Mrs. McKell attended as official representatives of Tattersall's Sydney. The winner of the Cup on the day was Jackdaw owned by Mr. Keith Heuston, trained by Mr. Roy Hinton and ridden on this occasion by jockey J. Wade. In making the presentation to these connections John said that he felt all present would join him in congratulating Tattersall's Newcastle upon the sponsorship of a race which has now become a traditional event in the racing calendar. He went on to say that this Club's keen interest and generous support of racing over the years has assisted considerably in the development of racing in this great sporting city. Tattersall's Sydney heartily congratulate their Newcastle counterpart on the success of yet another Tattersall's Cup meeting.

Golf Club to be formed

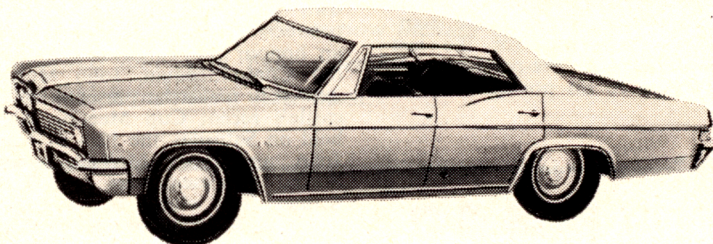

In the last two issues of this journal we have publicised the fact that many of our golfing members wished to get together and form a Tattersall's Golfing Section and asked for those interested to submit their names to the Club Secretary. We are now very happy to report that the response has been very enthusiastic and over sixty names of prospective members for this section have been registered. This weight of support makes the formation of the section automatic and all those whose names have been submitted will be notified early in the new year of a date on which an inaugural meeting will be held to elect a committee and get things under way. Any interested members who have not already submitted their names are now requested to do so in order that they can be notified of the meeting date. A phone call or a note to the Club Secretary is all that is necessary. So come on members; let's get the number of foundation members up to 100 before we go.

TO TAKE RACING MEN ON TOUR

Turf journalist, John Schofield, who has been in and around the Club for as many years as most, has an additional line not widely known. Last year he escorted a group of English racing people through the North Island of New Zealand, around the N.S.W. studs and down to Melbourne for the Cup meeting. He is going to be "Cooks Man" again. This time the noted travel agency is organising a 43-day flight through America to England and back, sight-seeing, visiting racing tracks and studs in America, England and France, leaving on May 22 and returning on July 6. It is a package deal in which Clubman, John Pepper, Cooks' Chief in N.S.W., took considerable personal interest. Features will be racing at Aqueduct in U.S.A. The Epsom Derby and Ascot Gold Cup meetings in England, and the Grand Prix meeting at St. Cloud in France.

"A COOL RIDE TO THE CLUB"

When a jangling telephone bell rakes your nerve ends, don't curse it. The caller may be a charming lady offering to drive you to the club in air-conditioned comfort.

The car that will meet you will convince you instantly that comfortable air conditioned summer motoring is no longer a luxury enjoyed only by oil tycoons, famous film stars and royalty.

Immediately its engine is started and the air conditioner turned on the car is cooled. The air is cleaned and de-humidified and its passengers enjoy an atmosphere of ease and relaxation.

Your first reaction will be to compare your journey with one in a car that has been parked in sunshine for several hours.

You'll arrive cool, refreshed and clean and think what this means to women passengers who have had to choose between ruined hairdoes in the draught from opened windows or melted make-up when they are closed.

Accept the invitation to a drive to the club or a short jaunt round town and you'll realise why three and a half million American owners of family cars now take the comfort and cleanliness of air-conditioned motoring for granted.

MELBOURNE CUP

As usual the Melbourne Cup was very well patronised by our members this year and the list of the names of those who made the journey south is too lengthy to be printed here. However the Club was officially represented by our Chairman Frank Carberry who thoroughly enjoyed the carnival and also the opportunity for a little relaxation from the problems and worries with which he and the Secretary have had to contend in the Club alterations. The members who accompanied Frank also had an excellent time in Melbourne and by this time are just about looking forward to the next trip.

Overseas tours by golfing members

Precision Golf Forging's Clare Higson (Managing Director), Ernest Kermeth (General Manager) and Tom Crow (International Marketing Manager) recently returned from overseas business trips.

Clare Higson returned on November 22 after visiting Los Angeles, Honolulu, Tokyo and Hong Kong.

Minister for Trade, John McEwen, appointed Clare leader of the 220 exhibitors at the Australian Trade Display in Los Angeles (October 30-November 4). The Display was Australia's biggest overseas trade promotion and was attended by more than 25,000 American businessmen by invitation.

Clare was given a Civic Luncheon by the American Chamber of Commerce in Los Angeles. In Tokyo he took time off to see The Canada Cup, in which P.G.F. representative Kel Nagle was competing for Australia.

Ernest Kermeth was abroad for 10 weeks, visiting the Philippines, U.K., Germany and U.S.A. He also attended the Trade Display in Los Angeles.

After the Display, he was driving from Los Angeles to San Francisco with a carload of golf clubs. All the clubs, including Clare Higson's own gold-plated set (worth $350), had been exhibited at the display.

Arriving at Town & Country Village, San Jose, Calif., Ernest called on an old

P.G.F. customer, Bill Henry, professional golfer.

"What have you got in there (the station waggon)?" asked Bill.

"Our L.A. exhibit, including Clare's display set," replied Ernest.

Clare Higson, managing director of P.G.F.

"Waal, I'll take the lot," said Bill without quibble.

Ernest handed over the consignment, including the boss's own set of gleaming gold clubs. The sale: $2,000!

P.G.F. recently shipped 10 sets of gold-plated golf clubs to Japan for a big sporting goods retailer.

Tom Crow was away four weeks on export promotion in Manila, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur, Singapore, Taiwan and Japan. He played golf with Singapore's Prime Minister Lee Kwan Yew, with President Marcos of the Philippines, and returned with $80,000 worth of golf club orders for P.G.F.!

Dining room-lounge now open

Last month saw the re-opening of the dining room and lounge on the fourth floor after its period of inaction for remodelling. The reports of the members who have seen it so far leave no doubt whatsoever that this temporary loss of facilities has been very much worthwhile for the new area has been justifiably described as the nicest of its kind on the Sydney club scene.

The whole aspect of the area, including both dining and lounge, is one of spaciousness and tasteful dignity which appeals equally to the male and female eye.

Reports from the ladies who have visited the fourth floor indicate that they are particularly impressed with the new powder room facilities.

The dining and lounge hours now revert to their old timetable for breakfast, lunch and dinner and the new setting will provide a most pleasant and fitting background for our regular dinner dances which should prove most popular during the festive season. These dinner dances are held regularly on Thursday and Saturday nights and members will find them a pleasant way to spend a delightful evening and an excellent opportunity for entertaining a party of mixed guests.

Other aspects of the Club Development Programme upon which we report include the new buffet, bar, billiards room and card room on the second floor. It is expected that these will be completed by the middle of December and, if all goes according to the present programme, will be in use well in time for Christmas.

The private functions room, which will be known as the Sportsmen's Room, on the lower ground floor is also nearing completion and an early announcement can be expected on its opening in the near future.

This room will accommodate from 80 to 100 for such functions as cocktail parties, buffets and dinners and will fill a need long felt in our Club.

The staff amenities on the third floor mezzanine, too, is expected to be complete in a very short while and when in operation these three areas will see much of the first stage of our programme behind us.

VALE JOHN HICKEY

November proved to be a sad month indeed for Tattersall's Club for it saw the passing of John Hickey, a man who had been a past chairman of Tattersall's and who had given twenty-two years of his life to our affairs and the administration of our organization.

John passed away rather suddenly and news of his death came as a great shock to all those who had known him in the Club where his presence had become accepted as part of the Tattersall's scene.

He was certainly one of our best known chairmen of recent decades for he held this office for twelve years from 1949 to 1961 when he felt he should step down to make way for a successor.

His resignation as chairman coincided with his retirement from active participation in his profession in which he had made such a mark, and in which he enjoyed the highest reputation as one of Sydney's leading solicitors.

His years on the Club Committee and later in the chair were difficult ones for Tattersall's for they spanned the war and post-war periods. It was largely to his guidance and leadership during this time that the Club weathered them so well.

John Hickey was born in the N.S.W. country town of Quirindi. His father was a contractor in that town and John was one of four boys in the family.

His early education was gained in Quirindi but he came to Sydney for secondary schooling and enrolled as a pupil of the well-known Christian Brothers college at Waverley when he was fifteen. He preceded his family to the city and they came down one year later to settle here.

John was an enthusiastic sportsman while at school and played most games. He was however also a very keen student and the time he needed to devote to his studies precluded the possibility of his becoming outstanding on the sporting field.

A law matriculation completed John's secondary schooling and he then became articled to a city law firm where he worked during the day and continued his legal studies at night. When he became a fully fledged solicitor he worked for several different firms to gain experience and finally decided to branch out on his own at the age of 30.

He was an immediate success in his own practice and soon became firmly established as a highly capable member of his profession. Although he handled many controversial cases during his legal career his most famous, which will be well remembered by the more senior members of the Club, was the Field divorce proceedings. These continued for 80 days and established a record for the longest case in this jurisdiction by a wide margin.

After the Second World War John took his son, John junior, into partnership and this association lasted ten years until the latter decided to become a barrister. The partnership broke up in 1960.

John then went into partnership with a life-long friend and fellow-student K. D. Manion and this continued until his retirement.

After his initial establishment as a solicitor, John was able to find more time for relaxation and took up golf. He was secretary of Tattersall's Golf Club, which existed at the time, and also club captain at Moore Park.

He married in 1919 and he and Mrs. Hickey had two children; John Hickey junior, as previously mentioned, and a daughter, Dympna.

After his retirement from practice and his resignation as Club chairman John lived quietly in his Bondi home. His main interest was gardening and his visits to Tattersall's gave him a great deal of pleasure.

Although perhaps these visits became fewer over the last couple of years they will be grievously missed by all members of Tattersall's for even those newer members who were not part of the Club when John was our chairman knew him by sight and were all familiar with his record of service to Tattersall's.

We are all deeply saddened by the passing of this great clubman but he leaves three things any single one of which even the most distinguished amongst us would be proud to leave. They are:

The deep and lasting affection of a countless number of friends; in Tattersall's, in the legal world of which he was so much a well known part and amongst his social contacts.

A highly enviable record of unselfish service to the Club whose welfare and progress was so close to his heart for over a quarter of a century.

An inspiration and a model for those who follow in his footsteps both within and without Tattersall's for he was a true and gentle man in every sense of the word.

Vale John Hickey.

A stable strapper's dream comes true With two Melbourne Cup triumphs

By C. J. Graves, Sydney Daily Telegraph

A horse enthusiast had come of age, but at 21 was still a mere strapper in his father's stable. But he had the privilege of leading in the 1950 Melbourne Cup winner his father had just trained. He was an ambitious young man, but one wonders if he even pondered the possibility that he would become a trainer in his own right who would lead in winners of $85,120 at the Melbourne Cup Carnival of 1966.

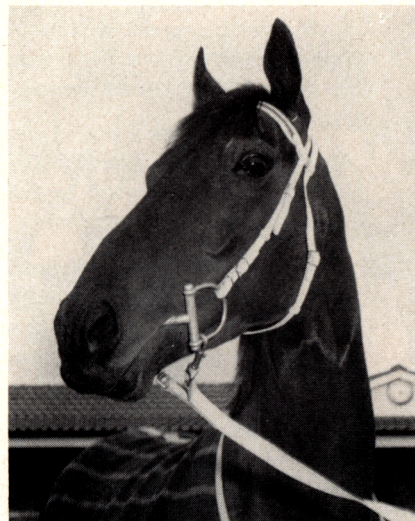

The ambitious 21-year-old was Bart Cummings, who at 38, trained the winner of the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups double, Galilee, the winner of the George Adams, the principal mile at the carnival; Storm Queen and the runner-up in the Melbourne Cup, Light Fingers.

Since he led in Comic Court, the winner of the Melbourne Cup of 1950, for his father, Jim Cummings, Bart had forged his way to the top of his calling in Adelaide, where he was the leading trainer and at the conclusion of the 1966 Melbourne Cup carnival he could be hailed as Australia's foremost trainer of racehorses — rivalling the supremacy of Sydney's Tom Smith.

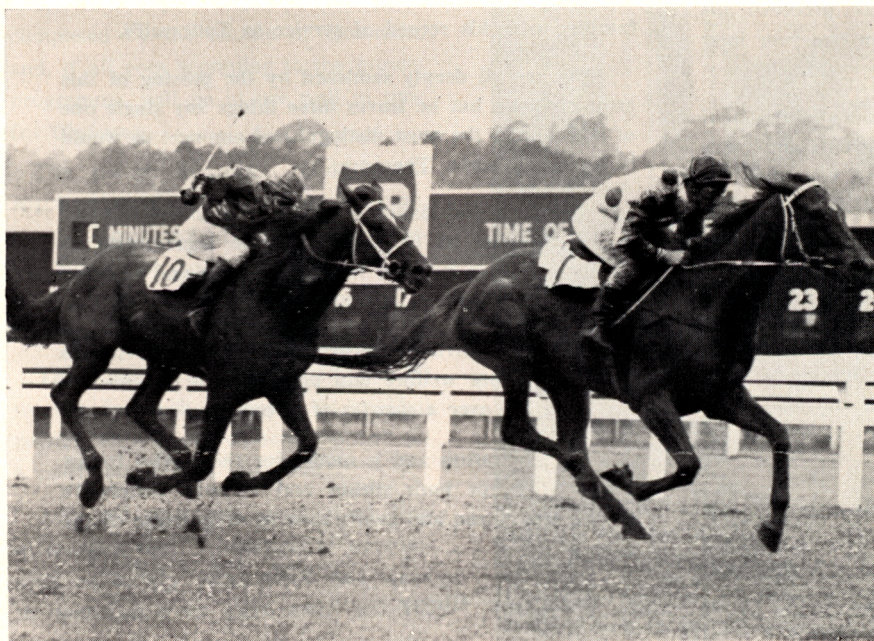

In the last issue of this Club Magazine we had told how in olden times leading Australian trainers farmed the Melbourne and other great two-mile cups. Walter Hickenbotham, of Flemington, had turned out the winners of four Melbourne and four Sydney Cups and it was emphasised that in modern times even a cups double was a rarity. But a few days after the magazine story appeared, up steamed Bart Cummings to break in with his Melbourne Cup double, Light Fingers, 1965, and Galilee, 1966. But he achieved even a greater feat for he provided the second horses in both cups—Ziema, 1965 runner-up, and Light Fingers, 1966 runner-up. This achievement with Light Fingers was fantastic because she was an unlucky mare involved in accidents and injuries and to keep her in form and condition for a year to win one cup and run second in the next was a feat of which any trainer could be proud. But within a fortnight came the crowning triumph when he won the mile and a half Sandown Cup with Light Fingers, carrying top weight 9-0 on a rain-sodden track.

The precision with which he developed his horses bordered on magic. The best two and three-year-old filly in three States, Storm Queen; the best mare of her time from six furlongs to two miles, Light Fingers; and then Galilee, whom he developed from a minor Welter at Caulfield in September to the winner in less than two months of the Toorak, Caulfield, and Melbourne Cups and the weight-for-age C. B. Fisher Plate by 2½ lengths from Tobin Bronze—who this season had already won every one of the seven w.f.a. races he had contested. A lightly raced four-year-old, Galilee has started in only 22 races for 12 wins, four seconds and one third. These performances have yielded $111,830. Critics have hailed him as the best since Tulloch and better even than Even Stevens, who won the two Cups in 1962. Galilee has a bright future with all the great staying races within his scope and unlimited weight-for-age prospects. All of which could raise his winnings well on the way to a quarter of a million dollars. He is now enjoying a short spell which will enable him to resume Autumn racing in Melbourne in March and then come on to Sydney. Chief targets will be the Norfolk Stakes (two miles) and Queen Elizabeth 1½ miles at Flemington in March and the Sydney Cup two miles at Randwick at Easter.

Storm Queen has won 12 races worth $94,545. They included Australia's richest two-year-olds, Vic Sires' Produce and the Golden Slipper and Champagne in N.S.W. She won the Caulfield Guineas against both sexes, but her crowning feat was her success against all ages and all-comers in the $14,000 Geo. Adams to pounce upon older champions and score a triumph unprecedented for a three-year-old filly. And what made it better was the time, 1:35.6.

Light Fingers has had 30 starts for 15 wins and a stakes tally of $109,470—not bad for an occasional cripple who had to miss the most important Autumn events after only two starts.

Most good trainers are “bred among horses”. But Bart Cummings was “bred among good horses”. The great performer of his time as a strapper was Comic Court, who had 28 wins, 11 seconds and 3½ thirds from 53 starts—only 10 unplaced over distances from five furlongs to two miles. He won $97,158. Jockey Pat Glennon took a mighty gamble when he hurried Comic Court to the front with his 9:5 five furlongs from home. But he survived to win easily by three lengths in record time, 3:19½; which still stands and only equalled twice since by Evening Peal (1956) and Lord Fury (1961). Pat Glennon had been on the outer for a long time but this win put him back on the map and besides winning other important Australian races he gained an overseas assignment which brought him marked success.

Bart Cummings, besides being raised among good horses, can claim to have learned one important lesson from his father's stable. Jim Cummings always employed top jockeys. Comic Court was raced by a family of five—a father and four Lee brothers—and they always engaged Jack Purtell, Victorian crack lightweight when they took the horse to Melbourne. They also rewarded him well for his successes. One day after a success in a comparatively minor event, one of the Lee brothers handed Jack a parcel as he sat in his car ready to drive home after a race meeting. It looked like a boot box. He put it on the back seat and was getting out of the car at home forgetful of the gift. His wife reminded him and he brought it in and again put it down. “If you're not going to open it, I am,” said his wife, and she did. It WAS a boot box, but crammed tightly with notes—£2,000 of them—as a token gift after a good long-odds win one of the Lee boys had brought off.

Bart Cummings followed in the footprints of the Lees with Comic Court by engaging Roy Higgins, Melbourne's current crack jockey for Light Fingers and Storm Queen and the lighter J. Miller for Gallilee. On the Cummings' horses all have risen to superb heights—as results so forcibly testify.

Galilee's greatest triumph—the Melbourne Cup.

First point score to Mortensen

First point score series of the 1966/67 season went to Brian Mortensen, who headed off Derek Jackson in the last two events to win by $4\frac{1}{2}$ points with a tally of two wins, a second and a third in the four finals.

Battling it out for the second point-score series are John Cunningham and Bob Cleaver with nineteen points, one ahead of Gordon Williams with John Keating half a point astern.

Unfortunately for Cunningham he was not able to line up for the final of the third race of the series and it is on the cards that he will miss the fourth and last race which will put him out of the running.

Gordon Williams, too, was a scratch-ing from the final of the third race and a second in that race put Cleaver on the top ring. His chances of taking the point score look first rate, but hot challenges will come from Williams, Keating, Cohen and Ogg.

As the pool was closed on October 27, the date set down for the final of the 80 yards Brace Relay, both the finals of that event and of a 40 yards Handicap were held on the one day, something that has never happened before.

It meant that David Morrissey, David Cohen and Brian Mortensen had to compete twice, the last named two each swimming a tie for second in one Final and third in the other.

In the two-lap handicap on November 15, an all-time record of 58 starters competed whereas the average number for the past five races was fifty. There is no doubt about the enthusiasm shown by the members, and the racing officials are doing a wonderful job in fitting in up to fifteen heats during the lunch hour.

New members welcomed since the last issue of T.C.M. were John Marsden and John Talty, both of whom have shown splendid form.

Also in fine fettle is Sam Ogg who, though a Tattersall's Club member for a long time, only started swimming this season. In the current point-score series Sam has swum in two of the three events and has been a winner in both Brace Relays.

Sam has improved so much that it's nearly safe to tip that his handicap will be reduced the first time he contests a straight-out handicap.

Talking of handicap reductions, the big improver of the month was Lee Bluett, who cut three seconds off his time whilst those who were docked a second each were Bob Harris, Rob Hill, Barry Shields, John Canfield and Brian Mortensen.

Swimming Club members were saddened to learn of the death of ex Tattersall's Club Chairman, John Hickey, last month and out of respect for the memory of one who had done so much for the Club all present at the Pool stood in silence before the start of racing.

The Club's sympathy is given to Mrs. Hickey and family, and the Club was represented at the funeral service by officials Arthur McCamley and Jack Dexter.

Congratulations to member Rob Pfafflin on his recent engagement to be married. Good luck, Rob!

Fastest winning times of the month were: 20 and 20.1, Brian Mortensen; 20.3, 20.7 and 21.5, Norman Rogers; 20.5, B. McKinnon; 20.8, Bill Henneberry.

It is good to see so many of our members taking a real interest in the improvement of N.S.W. swimming. Amongst the members of N.S.W.A.S.A. Educational and Coaching Committee are John Devitt, Forbes Carlile, Terry Gathercole and John Marsden.

David Cohen's consistency has put him on top in the "Native Son" Point Score for all points scored during the season. The contest for Bill Kirwan's trophy is sure to be a keen one. Cohen leads with $39\frac{1}{2}$ points from Brian Mortensen and Derek Jackson, 36, with John Keating, John Cunningham, Terry Forrest and a host of others within striking distance.

At the recent Annual Meeting of the Union of Old Swimmers, Tattersall's Club's popular and energetic Chairman, Frank Carberry, was again unanimously elected President whilst Swimming Club Secretary, Jack Dexter, was appointed Patron, Sid Blake, Publicity Officer, and Bill Berge-Phillips, a Vice-President.

The time-honoured Annual Christmas Scramble will be held in the Pool on Thursday, December 22, when a handicap teams' race will be held between four teams and a consolation handicap of six times across for the unplaced team members will be contested. Prizes of Christmas cheer will be presented to all competitors, win, lose or draw, so don't forget to be there to pass on seasonal greetings to all the boys.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM BOWLING SECTION

President Dr. Fuzz Porter wishes all Tattersall's members, and the bowling section in particular, the Compliments of the Season. Although in his first year of office the bowling section has never had a better President. With a big year coming up, which includes a trip to Adelaide, all he asks is that you give him your support to make 1967 the best year in the bowling section's history.

Owing to the Dining Room not being available, the Christmas Dinner Dance will not be held this year. Arrangements are in hand to hold this function early in March, 1967. Judging by the financial position of the Bowling Section this event should be bigger and better than ever.

Owing to circumstances over which we had no control our match against Waverley was not held this year.

Arrangements are in hand for this event to be held in the new year. As we are the host club, watch the board on the first floor and assure a bumper attendance.

Highlight of the month was our match against Newcastle. This game was played at Pennant Hills, President of Pennant Hills, Albert Leeds, welcomed both Newcastle and Tattersall's bowlers. Newcastle was led by their President, Ron Considine, who brought along 30 players. Tattersall's with an equal number were host club for the day.

Although rain threatened through the day we were fortunate to finish the 25 ends.

Frank Carberry came along also to welcome Newcastle and judging by his speech it will not be long before he is an active member of the bowling section.

The service and meals provided by the Pennant Hills Club were excellent and all agree that it was a most successful and enjoyable day.

Results were:

R. Dawbarn lost to Len Burke, 28-18.
R. Trudt lost to Jack Schofield, 24-16.
R. Considine beat Harold Hill, 35-20.
A. Frazer beat Ken Williams, 35-24.
A. Reay beat Jack O'Neill, 28-21.
A. Lambert lost to Lou Malouf, 31-19.
E. Smith beat Stan Chatterton, 2-20.
A. Freeman lost to J. Spies, 34-19.

Thus Tattersall's won by 203 shots to 193.

Trophies for the day were generously donated by Lou Malouf.

Winners for Newcastle were F. Davis, J. Coates, R. Armstrong and A. Reay. Tattersall's winners were Clive Hoole, Homer Jones, Noel Hough and Len Burke.

NOVEMBER RESULTS

3rd November at Waverley:

Game washed out.

10th November at Waverley, 34 players:

T. W. Spring.

Homer Jones.

Nick Solomon.

17th November at Rose Bay:

Bunny Saw, Ray Davis, Mick Greenberg and Erik Scott.

24th November at Maroubra:

Jack Peters, Clive Hoole and Ken Williams.

Unusual things are always happening on the bowling greens. At Rose Bay Jack Shaffran lost the possible nine in a triples game against Harry Davis. At Pennant Hills against Newcastle, Ken Williams lost two eights in the one fours game. Has anyone heard of this before.

The Club events which are the Singles Championship and the Handicap Pairs have closed with 38 for the singles and 52 for the pairs. This event will get under way in the very near future. Players will be notified as to whom they play and the time and place a week or so before their game.

Progress scores for the Don Wilson trophy after nine games with two to go are H. Davis, 150½; N. Solomon, 147½; R. Darch, 137½; F. Porter, 137; G. Booth, 136½; P. McGrath, 131; M. Barnett, 130.

No progress yet with billiards and snooker

Unfortunately we have not been able to make any progress with our annual billiards and snooker events as yet. As reported in the last issue of this journal, with the second floor out of action, and the resultant additional pressure put upon our other facilities due to this and other problems, it has been impossible to arrange a venue. However we are hopeful of getting things under way again early in the New Year.

This seems as though it will be possible as it is anticipated that our new billiards room will be back in action again about the middle of December. However, even if all goes according to plan in this direction, it would be impractical to recommence the events this side of Christmas as all those concerned will undoubtedly have festive season commitments and probably many will be away from the city on vacation.

While this interruption to our annual tournament is unfortunate, it is in a good cause for our new facilities on the second floor will be greatly improved and the surroundings for players will be much more pleasant.

We sincerely hope that our new "premises" will be the means of attracting more players to the billiards and snooker section and any new members who feel like joining our numbers will be very welcome indeed. We will look forward to seeing some new faces on the second floor in the New Year.

Talking of the New Year, your billiards and snooker committee look forward to this period with enthusiasm for we hope to have one of our best years yet.

As this is our last issue before Christmas, we take this opportunity of wishing all billiards and snooker members a happy festive season. From this section of the Club we extend similar greetings to all fellow sporting bodies in Tattersall's and wish them success for the coming year.

Now YOUR car . . .

JOIN THE SHEIKS, RAJAHS AND PRESIDENTS . . . Technical advances in recent years have at last brought the luxurious comfort of air-conditioned driving within the price reach of many Australians.

Now you can drive cool, clean—arrive cool, clean and refreshed, with a clear mind ready for business action. Even on the hottest, muggiest days, your SMITHS Refrigerated Air-Conditioner will provide the exact coolness you require.

The comfort of an air-conditioner in your car has to be experienced to be believed. We would like to demonstrate this for you. Just phone "The Air-Conditioning Service Manager". He'll arrange for a car to call on you at your home or office at a convenient time. May we suggest you pick a very warm moment—a drive around the block with a Smiths Refrigerated Air-Conditioner will "pick-you-up" for the rest of the day!
